TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1772.

BOSTON, MAY 28.

YESTERDAY being the anniverſary of the day appointed by the Charter for the Election of Councellors for this province, the great and general Court or Aſſembly met at Harvard-College in Cambridge, at nine o'clock in the morning; when the uſual oaths were adminiſtred to the gentlemen, who were returned to ſerve as members of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, who alſo ſubſcribed to the declaration:---The houſe then made choice unanimouſly of Mr. SAMUEL ADAMS for their clerk; after which they choſe the honourable THOMAS CUSHING, Eſq; their ſpeaker.

About nine o'clock his Excellency the Governor, with thoſe Gentlemen of the Council who reſided in town, ſet out from the Province-Houſe, being eſcorted by the troop of guards, and about half after ten o'clock arrived at Harvard-College, and being in the chair, a committee of the Houſe preſented the Speaker elect to his Excellency, who afterwards ſent a meſſage in writing, agreeable to the Royal Explanatory Charter, that he approved of their choice.

About twelve o'clock his Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Honourable his Majeſty's Council, the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, went in proceſſion to the Meeting-Houſe, where a ſermon, very ſuitable to the occaſion, was preached by the Rev. Mr. Moſes Parſons, of Byfield Pariſh, in Newbury, from Prov. xxi. 1.

In the afternoon the two houſes proceeded to the choice of the following gentlemen as Councellors for the enſuing year, viz.

For the late colony of MASSACHUSETTS BAY.

The Honourable Samuel Danforth, Eſq; Iſaac Royal, Eſq; John Erving, Eſq; William Brattle, Eſq; James Bowdoin, Eſq; Harriſon Gray, Eſq; James Ruſſel, Eſq; James Pitts, Eſq; Samuel Dexter, Eſq; Thomas Sanders, Eſq; Artemas Ward, Eſq; Benjamin Greenleaf, Eſq; Thomas Hubbard, Eſq; Stephen Hall, Eſq; *John Hancock, Eſq; Caleb Cuſhing, Eſq; Timothy Woodbridge, Eſq; and *Samuel Phillips, Eſq.

For the late colony of PLYMOUTH.

The Honourable James Otis, Eſq; William Sever, Eſq; Walter Spooner, Eſq; *Jerathmeel Bowers, Eſq.

For the late province of MAINE.

The Hon. Nathaniel Sparhawk, Eſq; John Bradbury, Eſq; Jeremiah Powell, Eſq.

For SAGADAHOCK.

The Hon. James Gowen, Eſq.

At Large.

The Hon. James Humphry, Eſq; George Leonard, jun. Eſq.

The gentlemen with this [*] mark, were not of the Council laſt year.

The liſt of Councellors choſen yeſterday, being this day agreeable to the direction of the Royal Charter, preſented to his Excellency, he was pleaſed to conſent to the Election of the above gentlemen, except the Honourable Jerathmeel Bowers, Eſq.

The Hon. John Hancock, Eſq; declined taking his ſeat at the board.

This day his Excellency was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both houſes.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

IN conformity to the powers and privileges granted by the Royal Charter you have been convened in this place in order to the election of Councellors for the enſuing year; and this buſineſs being finiſhed you have now an opportunity of proceeding to the conſideration of ſuch other public affairs as may properly come before you. In every meaſure, as far as ſhall conſiſt with my duty to the King and with the welfare and proſperity of the province, I will chearfully concur with you.

I have nothing in ſpecial command from his Majeſty to lay before you. Moſt of you are ſo well acquainted with the uſual buſineſs of the General Aſſembly at this annual ſeſſion that I need not particularly point it out to you.

I tranſmitted by the firſt opportunity to his Excellency the Governor of New-York, a copy of the act of the laſt aſſembly appointing Commiſſaries in order to the ſettlement of the line between the two provinces. I doubt not I ſhall ſoon receive an anſwer and be able to communicate it to you. In the courſe of the ſeſſion I ſhall probably propoſe to you by meſſage the conſideration of ſome other public matters for which at preſent I am not fully prepared. T. HUTCHINSON.

JUNE 4.

On Saturday laſt a committee of his Majeſty's Council waited on his Excellency the Governor with the following addreſs in anſwer to his ſpeech, viz.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE have taken into conſideration your Excellency's ſpeech to both Houſes, and thank you for the readineſs you expreſs to concur with them in every meaſure conſiſtent with your duty to the King and the welfare of the province. As from the nature and end of government that duty and welfare ſhould reſult from and be inſeparably connected with each other; we hope there will never be any militation between them.

We are obliged to your Excellency for the early care you took to tranſmit to the Governor of New-York, the proceedings of the General Court, relative to the ſettlement of the line between the two provinces, and hope you will ſoon receive an anſwer.

The ſettlement of that line is for many reaſons greatly to be wiſhed, in particular that all occaſions may be taken away of further diſturbances between the borderers. We hope the anſwer you expect from the Governor of that province, will ſhew that the neceſſary preparatory meaſures on their part, have been or ſoon will be taken for the amicable and final adjuſtment of that line.

We are fully in the ſentiment intimated by your Excellency, that the Royal Charter ought to be conformed to in the powers and privileges granted by it; but however conformable to the Charter in your Excellency's opinion, the convening of the General Court at Cambridge may be, its ſitting out of Boſton is in many reſpects very inconvenient: We therefore pray your Excellency to remove it to the Court-Houſe in that town, which, for more than a century has (with very few exceptions) been uninterruptedly the place of its ſitting; and where, in our opinion, it will be more for his Majeſty's ſervice and the true intereſt of the province, the Court ſhould be held.

To the ſeveral public matters your Excellency expects to propoſe to our conſideration, we ſhall give the cloſeſt attention and the utmoſt diſpatch.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Council,

I THANK you for your addreſs. I will take into my conſideration your deſire that I would remove the Court to Boſton, and I will comply with it if it ſhall appear to me for his Majeſty's ſervice, and the true intereſt of the province.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Council-Chamber, Cambridge,
30th May, 1772.

The ſame day Mr. Hancock, Captain Thomas, Mr. Adams, Mr. Phillips, and Mr. Gorham, a Committee from the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, waited on his Excellency the Governor with the following anſwer to his ſpeech to both Houſes at the opening of the ſeſſion, viz.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE Houſe of Repreſentatives have deliberately conſidered your ſpeech at the opening of this ſeſſion.

Your Excellency is pleaſed to ſay, that "in conformity to the powers and privileges granted by the Royal Charter, we have been convened at this place, in order to the election of Councellors for the enſuing year." It is a Charter Right that a General Aſſembly ſhall be convened on the laſt Wedneſday in May annually, for the choice of Councellors: But the convening and holding the General Aſſembly at Harvard-College in Cambridge, is a meaſure very grievous to us. And it requires the greateſt degree of candour, to ſuppoſe it to be for the good of the people, which is the ſole end for which the powers veſted in you by the Charter were granted.

The Town-Houſe in Boſton, is the accuſtomed ancient place for holding the General Aſſembly; and where alone proviſion is made for it. It does not appear to us, that there was any neceſſity for convening the Aſſembly in this place, nor can we conceive of any for continuing it here. Without ſuch neceſſity, the continuing the Aſſembly in any other place than the Town-Houſe in Boſton, will be a very great grievance, and an undue exerciſe of your power. And as we cannot without the greateſt inconvenience proceed to the conſideration of the public buſineſs in this place, which is very preſſing and greatly in arrears by reaſon of the prorogations of the laſt year, we are conſtrained to lay before your Excellency our earneſt requeſt that you would be pleaſed to remove the Aſſembly to the Town-Houſe in Boſton; where we may with the greateſt advantage and diſpatch, tranſact all ſuch public matters as are now before us, together with ſuch others as your Excellency ſhall propoſe for our conſideration.

To the anſwer of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, his Excellency the Governor ſent by the Secretary the following reply.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I AGREE with you, that the powers veſted in me by Charter, are to be exerciſed for the good of the people, and I have made this the great object of my adminiſtration. I wiſh to avoid every thing which ſhall appear to you to be grievous, and although I cannot agree with you that unleſs there be a neceſſity of holding the Court in ſome other place than the town of Boſton, it muſt therefore be a grievance to remove it from thence; yet I will take the ſubject matter of your meſſage into conſideration, and if it ſhall not appear to me neceſſary for his Majeſty's ſervice and the good of the province to continue the Court in ſome other place than the town of Boſton, I will comply with your deſire, and remove it there. If it ſhall appear to me to be neceſſary to continue it in ſome other place, although by the conſtitution I am made the judge of that neceſſity, yet I will endeavour by another meſſage to convince you of it, that you may proceed in your buſineſs with the greater ſatisfaction.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Council-Chamber, Cambridge,
30th May, 1772.

Yeſterday his Excellency the Governor, ſent the following Meſſage.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

AS I wiſh to have a juſt underſtanding of every expreſſion in any Meſſages which come to me from the Houſe of Repreſentatives, I muſt deſire you to acquaint me, whether when you ſay in your Meſſage of the 29th May, that it does not appear to you there was any neceſſity of convening the Aſſembly at Cambridge, you intend my convening it there when I firſt removed it from Boſton, or my convening it there the preſent year. As ſoon as I am aſcertained of this, I ſhall be ready to give you a full anſwer to your Meſſage.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Cambridge,
3d June, 1772.

In the Houſe of Repreſentatives, June 3d, 1772.

ORDERED, That Mr. Hancock, Col. Bowers, Mr. Phillips, Major Hawley, Captain Heath, Mr. Hopſon, and Major Thayer, be a committee to wait upon his Excellency the Governor with the following anſwer to his Meſſage of this day.

T. CUSHING, Speaker.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

IN anſwer to your Meſſage of this day, this Houſe beg leave to ſay, that they judge the intention of the expreſſion particularly referred to by your Excellency, as well as of all other expreſſions in their Meſſage of the 29th of May, to be ſufficiently clear and plain, and therefore it is altogether needleſs to make any explanation of them, and hope your Excellency will not delay to give a full anſwer to that Meſſage.

His Excellency in the Afternoon ſent the following Meſſage.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I MUST govern myſelf by the meaſure not of your underſtanding but my own. What appears to you to be ſufficiently plain appears to me doubtful and equivocal. As it may be conſtrued one way or the other, ſo in complying with your deſire, founded upon this among other reaſons, I ſhould or ſhould not conform to the inſtructions of the King, whoſe ſervant I am. As reſerved as you have been in your anſwer to my Meſſage, I will be unreſerved and open with you. Whilſt you diſpute the authority by which I at firſt removed the Court from Boſton, I do not intend to carry it thither again, and whenſoever I ſhall receive his Majeſty's inſtructions for exerciſing the juſt prerogative of the crown in any caſe I will obſerve them without violation in any degree, and when your intention in any Meſſage appears to me uncertain and you refuſe to make it certain I think it will be a ſufficient juſtification for my refuſal to do any thing in conſequence of ſuch Meſſage ſo long as the uncertainty remains.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Council-Chamber,
Cambridge, 3d June, 1772.

His Honour the Governor, with the reſolve of the General Aſſembly of the colony of Connecticut, have iſſued a proclamation, continuing the embargo laid on the exportation of all wheat, Indian corn, and other grain of the growth and produce of that colony, and meal and flour manufactured in the ſame, by his Honour's proclamation dated the 28th of March laſt, (which terminates the 20th inſtant) till the 15th day of July next.

It is ſaid, that the account of the battles between the Regulars and Hearts of Steel in Ireland, is not true.

Laſt Thurſday being the annual Convention of the Miniſters in this province, a ſermon well adapted to the occaſion was preached at the Old South-Meeting-Houſe, by the Rev. Mr. Samuel Locke, Preſident of Harvard-College. We hear the collections are in future to be a fund for the relief of widows of miniſters deceaſed.

Monday laſt being the anniverſary of the election of officers of the ancient and honourable Artillery Company, in the morning the company appeared under arms, and at eleven o'clock waited on his Excellency the Governor, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the Honourable his Majeſty's Council, and thoſe of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives that were in town, with a number of the Clergy and other gentlemen, to the Old-Brick-Meeting-Houſe, where a ſermon on this occaſion was preached by the Rev. Mr. Nathaniel Robbins of Milton, from thoſe words in Pſalm CXXII. 6. Pray for the peace of Jeruſalem, &c.

After divine ſervice, his Excellency the Governor, with the other gentlemen went in proceſſion to Faneuil-Hall, where an elegant dinner was provided by the company; the Honourable Admiral Montague, being invited alſo attended. After dinner a number of loyal toaſts were drank; and at about three o'clock the company marched into the Common, when they performed the military exerciſes to the great ſatisfaction of a vaſt concourſe of people.---The officers for the laſt year then returned their badges to his Excellency the Governor, who was pleaſed to deliver them to the new-elected officers for the year enſuing, viz. Captain Martin Gay, Captain; Mr. Robert Jenkins, Lieutenant; Mr. John Skinner, Enſign.

The new-elected ſerjeants having their halberds delivered to them, the company returned to the hall, where a cold repaſt was provided by the new-commiſſioned officers, and when the company was diſmiſſed, went into the hall, and partook of the ſame: The evening concluded with again drinking a number of loyal toaſts.

This day being the anniverſary of the birth-day of our moſt gracious ſovereign the King, when he enters the 35th year of his age, the greateſt preparations are making for the celebration of the day.

SALEM, MAY 12.

Yeſterday was begun to be laid the foundation for a large congregational meeting-houſe, to be erected in this town, for the accommodation of an intended church, of which Mr. Thomas Barnard, jun. is to be paſtor.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) MAY 11.

Laſt Wedneſday, agreeable to the Royal Charter of this colony, the annual General Election was held in this town, when the following gentlemen were elected to the offices aſcribed to their reſpective names, for the year enſuing, viz.

The Honourable Joſeph Wanton, Eſq; Governor. The Hon. Darius Seſſions, Eſq; Dep. Governor. Samuel Dyre, Eſq; James Barker, Eſq; Solomon Drown, Eſq; David Harris, Eſq; John Almy, Eſq; Thomas Wickes, Eſq; Jonathan Randall, Eſq; John Congdon, Eſq; Rowland Robinſon, Eſq; and William Richmond, Eſq; Aſſiſtants. Henry Ward, Eſq; Secretary. Henry Marchant, Eſq; Attorney-General. Joſeph Clarke, Eſq; General-Treaſurer.

MAY 25. Laſt Thurſday, at the Rev. Dr. Stiles's, in this town, a number of ladies, on 70 wheels, ſpun 216 ſkeins of good linen yarn, which they preſented to Mrs. Stiles.

Yeſterday at two o'clock, P. M. Fahrenheit's thermometer ſtood at ninety, in a north ſhade.

JUNE 1. The brig Dolphin, Captain Henry Weeden, bound on a voyage for wood, to bring to this market, was caſt away yeſterday ſe'nnight, at the town of Weſterly, in this colony, the veſſel loſt, rigging, ſails, &c. ſaved.---'Tis ſaid the loſs of this veſſel was occaſioned by being detained a conſiderable time by one of the Board of Commiſſioners cruiſers, of which we hear there are, at this time, ſeven on this coaſt, including the Beaver and Gaſpee now in this harbour.-------

Poor New-England!---The Spaniards taking your whale-men in the Weſt-Indies, and your (pretended) friends taking and harraſſing your trade on your own coaſts, and even in your harbours and little coves and creeks!!!

CHRISTIANSTAD, (in ST. CROIX*) April* 18.

By a gentleman arrived from Antigua, we learn that a ſhip from Dublin for Philadelphia, having put into Antigua through ſtreſs of weather, amongſt other paſſengers who landed, was a certain ſuppoſed Adventurer, calling himſelf Captain Price, and attended by two ſervants; this perſon frequenting ſome of the ſecond-rate Taverns, had a bill brought for his, and ſervants expence, of which he, ſcrupling to pay ſome articles, was arreſted: But by ſome means finding that the Publican had not the proper Licence for retailing of liquors, he brought information againſt him, and had him condemned in the fine, of which our Captain had half, thereby paid his bill, and put money into his pocket: Finding this likely to turn out a good trade for him, he declared he had on his liſt 40 more punch ſellers, under the ſame predicament. This brought a general odium upon him, he was pointed at as an informer, and ſome people propoſed to puniſh him with the modern manner of Savage-making, Tar and Feathers. This was attempted one night, and the houſe, wherein he was, ſurrounded, but the Captain found means to withdraw, and getting through a prickly-pear fence, deemed impaſſable, he ſought refuge in the houſe of a Clergyman, who dreading a mob, was conducting him to the Guard, when they were met by a great number of people, ſome with bludgeons, a blow from one of which overturned the Clergyman's hat, and fell'd the unhappy Price to the earth, from which, taken up speechleſs, and carried to the Hoſpital, he expired in two days; the Coroner's inqueſt ſat on the body, and brought in their Verdict, "Wilful Murder." Since which, four ſuſpected perſons are committed to Goal, and the Hue and Cry gone out after ſeveral others.

CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 7.

THURSDAY laſt John Izard, Archibald M'Neil, and Alexander Wright, Eſquires, with their Families, embarked for Rhode-Iſland, in the Brig Betſey, Captain Peter Schermerhorn.

We learn, that Captain Richard Savery, (formerly in the Trade from London to St. Auguſtine) who was a Slaving on the Coaſt of Africa, was lately moſt cruelly murdered by the Negroes.

The Snow Induſtry, Bartholomew M'Kann, Maſter, bound from Jamaica for Cape-Fear, was caſt away on the 25th ult. on the Martiers; the People were ſaved, and paſſed by our Bar laſt Saturday Evening, in their Long-Boat, for Cape-Fear, where the Veſſel belonged.

Early on Sunday Morning laſt, the Town was alarmed with the Cry of Fire, which proved to be in a Stable belonging to Mr. Charles Atkins, Merchant, and in a little Time entirely conſumed the ſame, but did no other Damage.

LONDON, APRIL 22.

It is generally thought that the Court of Copenhagen, to avoid the diſgrace of being compelled into a ſurrender of the Queen, will deliver her up, before our fleet ſails from the Downs, and give a real act of neceſſity the appearance of inclination.

The Daniſh Ambaſſador has, we hear, made a formal demand with reſpect to the deſtination of the fleet now fitting out, and from a late intimacy which his Excellency has contracted with Prince Maſſerano, it is conjectured, that if we proceed to hoſtilities againſt his nation, the Spaniards, who only want a tolerable pretence for war, will not be indifferent ſpectators of the tranſaction.

It is thought extremely ſingular by many ſenſible people, that preparations ſhould be made for war without his Majeſty's once condeſcending to come to the leaſt explanation with his parliament. It is hard, numbers think, that the domeſtic diſunion of his relations ſhould plunge the nation into blood, and harder ſtill that an immenſe load of public debt ſhould be contracted without any communication of the purpoſes to the people.

We can aſſure the public, that Sir Charles Hardy is to command the ſquadron fitting out for the Baltic.

Sir Charles is to demand the Queen in form, and in caſe of a refuſal, is to bombard Copenhagen. There is no doubt but the fleet may come near enough to bombard the town. In the year 1718 Sir John Norris brought a ſquadron of ſhips of the line cloſe to the very walls.

We can aſſure the public, that the ſquadron fitting out for Copenhagen, after finiſhing the object of its deſtination before that city, is to proceed to Dantzic to protect it againſt the deſigns of the King of Pruſſia.

On Monday the Princeſs Amelia's agent paid 500l. to the truſtees as a ſubſcription from her Royal Highneſs to the unhappy ſufferers by the fire at Grenada.

APRIL 23. The Lord Biſhop of Peterborough, in his ſermon on Monday laſt at St. Bride's, pathetically recommended to the affluent, the exerciſe of charity to the poor, who are much diſtreſſed by the preſent high price of proviſions, &c. and his Lordſhip refuſed the uſual complimentary fee from the city; but deſired the officer, whoſe duty it was to attend him, to expend it in bread and meat for the uſe of the poor priſoners in the two Compters, which was accordingly done.

It is ſaid that a Great Perſonage has ſignified, that if upon examination his ſiſter ſhould appear to be innocent, he is determined to have ample ſatisfaction for the cruel treatment ſhe has already ſuffered.

Extract of a letter from Chatham, April 23.

"Orders were received at this dock-yard to fit out with the greateſt expedition his Majeſty's ſhips Reſolution and Triumph, of 74 guns each, now at this port. At the ſame time orders were ſent to Sheerneſs to fit out with all poſſible diſpatch his Majeſty's ſhip Marlborough, of 74 guns, two fire-ſhips and a bomb, at that port, all which to proceed to the Downs till further orders; and it was imagined were meant for Copenhagen. But this day orders were received by the officers of this dock-yard to ſtop all proceedings in fitting out the above ſhips; and the ſame orders likewiſe have been received at Sheerneſs."

To HUMANITY.

AH me! how little knows the human heart,
The pleasing task of soft'ning others woe,
Stranger to joys that pity can impart,
And tears sweet sympathy can teach to flow!
If e'er I've mourn'd my humble, lowly state,
If e'er I've bow'd my knee at fortune's shrine,
If e'er a wish escap'd me to be great,
The fervent pray'r, Humanity was thine.
Perish that man who hears the pitious tale
Unmov'd, to whom the heart-felt glow's unknown;
On whom the widow's plaints could ne'er prevail,
Nor made the injur'd wretch's case his own!
How little knows he the extatic joy,
The thrilling bliss of cherring wan despair?
How little knows the pleasing warm employ,
That calls the grateful tribute of a tear?
The splendid dome, the vaulted roof to rear,
The glare of pride and pomp, be grandeur thine!
To wipe from mis'ry's eye the wailing tear,
And sooth the oppressed ORPHAN's woes, be mine!
Be't mine the bluth of modest worth to spare,
To change to smiles affliction's rising sigh,
The kindred warmth of charity to share,
Till joy shall sparkle from the tear-fill'd eye!
Can the loud laugh, the mirth inspiring bowl,
The dance, or choral song, or jocund glee,
Affect the glowing, sympathizing soul?
Or warm the breast, Humanity, like thee?
The pallid coward's heart thou scorn'st to bear,
Thy seat's the gen'rous bosom of the brave;
The same bold warmth that bids the valiant dare,
Bids him the trembling, prostrate victim save.
Not all the laurels on Great Cæsar's brow,
Not all the honour Rome to pay him, strove,
Could such a glorious, deathless meed bestow,
As the fair wreath that meek-ey'd mercy wove.
Shall murd'rous conquest point the path to fame?
Shall scenes of ravage still employ the muse?
And shall not tender mercy have her claim?
The palm to her shall still the song refuse.
Ah no! the prowess of the hero's sword,
(When but to rapine and to waste confin'd)
The shouts of triumph can no name afford,
No title like the Father of Mankind.
Young Ammon's, or the Swedish Charles's fame,
May win the wonder of the unthinking crowd,
But reason's sober voice shall still proclaim,
"The paths of glory are not wet with blood."
To purge an impious, bold, offending race,
The stagnate, poison-breeding air to cleanse,
The indignant father bids his wrath take place,
A conqu'ror now, and now a whirlwind sends.
Relenting then, he bids the storms assuage,
And lo! a Titus, or a Brunswick reigns;
Justice and mercy bless the happy age,
And peace and plenty cheer the smiling plains.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Mr. Benjamin Roberts, late of Charles-Town, deceased, are desired to call and settle immediately, particularly those whose Interest Money are become due on their Bonds, Notes, &c. and have neglected to pay, are requested to do it directly, as they must not expect the smallest Indulgence in Case of Non-compliance of this reasonable Request.

WILLIAM ROBERTS, Executor.

I HAVE two Schooners, which have been lately off the Stocks, and are almost as good as new, with new Sails and Rigging, which I will dispose of (provided I can get their Value) together with the Negroes, who are as good Boatmen as any in the Province. The Schooners are as well calculated for the Rice Trade as any in the Province, as one will carry 160 Barrels, and draws but 6 Feet and a half Water, and the other 140 Barrels, and draws but 5 Feet and a half Water. The Purchasers may have as long Credit as they chuse, giving approved Security, and paying Interest from the Day of Sale.

WILLIAM ROBERTS.

TO BE SOLD by private Contract,

A PLANTATION at Stono, in St. Paul's pariſh, within eighteen miles of Charles-Town, containing about one thouſand three hundred and fifty acres, divided into two compact and valuable tracts, bounding to the eaſt on the weſt branch of Stono river, to the ſouth on land of Mr. Archibald Stanyarne, to the weſt on land of Mr. James Stanyarne, to the north on land of the ſaid James Stanyarne, Mr. Robert Rowand, and Charles Elliott, Eſq. Both the ſwamp and high land are of the beſt quality, equal to any, and ſuperior to moſt, in that pariſh, being contiguous to the river. The low grounds may be drained, planted, and kept dry, when all others higher up the ſwamp are overflowed. The uncleared ſwamp is well ſtocked with excellent cypreſs. On one of the tracts is a good landing that admits boats of large burthen, within half a mile of the barn and rice fields. There are on the ſaid tract a new rice machine, all neceſſary buildings, and a conſiderable quantity of ſwamp and high land in proper order for planting.

Credit on intereſt, will be given for any reaſonable number of years. Perſons deſirous to know further particulars relative to the ſaid land, or purchaſe both or either of the above tracts, or a part of the above plantation divided in any other manner, may apply to JOHN RUTLEDGE.

RUN-AWAY about ten days ago, from the ſubſcriber, a negro man named CYRUS, well known at the Euhaws, where I ſuppoſe he is harboured, as he has ſeveral relations there. Alſo, a negro man named PARIS, a bricklayer by trade, whom I bought at Mr. Coachman's ſale, well known at Ponpon, and Gooſe-Creek. A reward of FIVE POUNDS, will be given for each, on delivery to me; alſo a reward of TEN POUNDS, on conviction of their being harboured by a negro, and THIRTY POUNDS, if by a white perſon.

May 5, 1772. JOHN CHAMPNEYS.

RUN-AWAY a negro man named FRANCIS, by trade a carpenter, and uſed to work on board of veſſels; he is ſix feet high, very black complexion, likely and handſome for his age, which is near fifty. He plays upon the fiddle, and is well known about Hobcaw, where he has a brother, and where it is ſuppoſed he is harboured. TEN POUNDS reward will be given to any perſon who will deliver the ſaid fellow at my plantation at Gooſe-Creek, or to the warden of the work-houſe in Charles-Town, by
